

The Above and Beyond 'Thunder Clap'
Recognition for the Week of April 15th:

Kenna Gruba

Hometown Pride:

“I am proud to be part of the OF Community because I love that I am able to represent in a community that supports one other.”

Bleacher Report (activities):

Sports: Volleyball, Basketball and Track

Clubs: Above and Beyond, Student Council

Thunder Role:

“It's important to be a good role model because it shows others how to act and it's for someone to look up to.”

Topic Thunder:

“It's important to stay away from drugs, alcohol, and tobacco as an athlete and club member because it will not benefit you in any way especially your health.”

Scouting Report (quotes from teachers):

“As I read through the comments from her peers, I think they really nailed it. Kenna may be soft spoken but she leads by example. She is accepting and kind and focuses on the task at hand. She is not afraid to go outside of her comfort zone.” -Mrs. Simpson

Fan Deck (quotes from peers):

“Kenna is optimistic and creative.”

“Kenna is kind and helpful.”

“Kenna can be pretty quiet sometimes but she is extremely smart, active in the community, and is very kind and helpful to everyone.”

“Kenna enjoys people’s company and has fun. She is a person who is here to listen and gives full support at all times.”

“Kenna doesn’t talk that much but is a funny caring person and doesn’t leave anyone out. She is always a welcoming person and can always bring up your spirits.”

“Kenna is a good friend and person in general.”

“Kenna is a thoughtful friend and will help out anyone.”

Hometown Hero:

“My hometown hero is Tina Bohlinger. She has been an excellent role model in my life and I can’t thank her enough. She’s always been there to support me with any event. Not just me, but all her family and friends. Tina is a super creative person and very talented. She loves making cards for people and every time she makes one, she never fails to impress me. Her encouraging words is what keeps me going throughout the day, and the little gestures she offers to do is something I’ll always be grateful for. Tina being in my everyday life is something I will never take for granted.”
