

The Above and Beyond 'Thunder Clap'
Recognition for the Week of December 5th:

Kyle Burmesch

Hometown Pride:

“I am proud to be part of the OF community because of its generosity and willingness to support its community members.”

Bleacher Report (activities):

Sports: Cross Country and Track

Clubs: Above and Beyond, School Musicals, NHS, Hope Squad

Outside of School: Boy Scouts

Thunder Role:

“It's important to be a good role model because people will look up to you regardless of your choices. If you make poor choices, others will make those choices too. Conversely, if you make good choices, others will make good decisions.”

Topic Thunder:

“Substance use can negatively impact your abilities in athletics and academics. It can also lead to poor choices and health issues in the future.”

Scouting Report (quotes from teachers):

“I can always count on Kyle to provide technical help to other students (and me) whenever it's needed. He will drop his own work to help someone else or to provide input, which are admirable traits.” – Mrs. Beasley

“I have very much enjoyed having Kyle in my Spanish classes the last four years and am so proud of his curiosity, willingness to share ideas, and his fearlessness of trying things with the language in and outside of the classroom. He is a student that always makes me think, reflect, and in turn has made me a better teacher. I will miss him a ton next year!” – Mrs. Velasquez

“I have enjoyed seeing Kyle's growth as a person from his sophomore year in World Cultures until now as a senior in American Civics. I also really appreciate his willingness to get involved and participate in class discussions by sharing his viewpoints. Twitter time rules!” – Mr. Stoik

Fan Deck (quotes from peers):

“Kyle is a fun, positive, and smart kid. He helps people whenever they need it and he is very supportive.”

“Kyle Burmesch dedicates himself to an end goal and works tirelessly to achieve it.”

“Kyle always knows how to make someone laugh and has a good work ethic.”

“Kyle is a strong student with a great personality and the ability to make anyone laugh.”

“Kyle is a very smart hard working and all around a great person.”

“Kyle Burmesch is such a funny guy. His presence always makes me smile and he is insanely smart.”

“Kyle is a really funny guy and nice to be around.”

“Kyle is awesome.”

“Kyle is the most interesting students I have ever known. He will change the world one day!”

Hometown Hero:

“My hometown hero is Mrs. Lane-Neddermeyer because she was supportive of me and helps her students grow in their writing abilities.”
