

The Above and Beyond 'Thunder Clap'
Recognition for the Week of March 7th:

Lacey Frase

Hometown Pride:

"This community is beyond supportive not only at athletic events, but all around the community. The support we see at games has been vital for a success in past seasons. This community has supported the school and students throughout the pandemic, and I am very thankful for the people who bring our community together!"

Bleacher Report (activities):

Sports: Basketball and Softball

Clubs: Above and Beyond, FBLA, NHS, TADD and Student Council

Thunder Role:

"Being a good role model is so important because you never know who's watching, and the impression that you can have on younger students in our district."

Topic Thunder:

"Staying away from drugs and alcohol is so important especially as a student athlete, because you are role modeling for younger students. As well as living a healthy lifestyle in general."

Scouting Report (quotes from teachers):

"Lacey is a hard worker and a very creative individual. She uses her artistic talent to create quality art pieces and has dedicated time to learning how to throw pottery on the wheel. She is positive, kind, and a great role model for her younger peers. I appreciate her dedication and willingness to try new things in the art room." – Ms. Murvine

Fan Deck (quotes from peers):

"Lacey works hard and makes sure everyone is involved. She is friendly to everyone."

Hometown Hero:

"Kimi is the modern-day example of a independent woman, not only does she run a business but she is a amazingly happy person. Seeing her every morning when I get my tea and shake is the highlight of my day. She usually sees me twice a day, and I am very thankful that she is part of the community. She is the best example of a hometown hero and makes me smile every day. I know a lot of our community feels the same way. I aspire to be like Kimi in many ways!"
