

The Above and Beyond 'Thunder Clap'
Recognition for the Week of November 26th:

Lacey Frase

Hometown Pride:

“Osseo-Fairchild has given me so many opportunities to be involved! I take for granted how many ways I am given to succeed. We are so lucky to live in a community like we do!”

Bleacher Report:

Sports: Basketball and Softball

Clubs: Above and Beyond, TADD, Student Council

Thunder Role:

“Student athletes are held to higher standards when it comes to being a good role model because they are involved. Every student's goal is to succeed at something and watching someone you look up to do something is so motivating. I don't think most people notice how many people look up to them. It is so important to be a good role model because you never know who is watching you and how you impact their lives.”

Topic Thunder:

“I feel it is so important to stay away from drugs and alcohol because it leads to bigger and worse decisions. Especially if you value your education, drugs and alcohol send you down the wrong path.”

Scouting Report:

“Lacey is always so friendly and happy! She isn't one to complain or be disrespectful to anyone. Lacey is also a mature student and leads by a calm example.” – Mrs. Nelson

“Lacey has such a kind heart. She works hard at everything she does and makes everyone around her better!” – Mrs. Zawacki

“Lacey is always wearing a smile; you would never know if she was having a bad day. Her love of sports is matched by her eagerness to learn. I also admire Lacey for her ability to engage in conversation with anyone.” – Mrs. Ottestad

“Lacey is a hard worker, very kind and respectful.”

“Lacey is a good athlete and smart.”

“Lacey makes everyone feel included and is very kind to every teacher.”

“Lacey helps people no matter what situation or who they are.”

“Lacey is super nice and honest and will get things done on time when you need them and she helps everyone.”

“Lacey is so sweet. She does well in school and is nice to everyone.”

Hometown Hero:

“My hometown hero is Les Munnik. He is an all around amazing person and I look up to him completely. His position at my church was youth pastor and he taught me through my first year of confirmation. He is such a happy guy and he is able to walk in a room and get a positive reaction from everyone! Through my confirmation he taught me so much more than religion; also how to be an accepting and involving member in my church and life. Les has had such a great impact on my life and I am glad that I got to be a part of his class and learn things I will never forget.”
