

The Above and Beyond 'Thunder Clap'
Recognition for the Week of January 8th:

Leah Klevgard

Hometown Pride:

"I am proud to be part of the OF community because we are all great people and make each other even better!"

Bleacher Report (activities):

Sports: Volleyball, Dance and Softball

Clubs: Above and Beyond, Student Council, Hope Squad, FBLA

Thunder Role:

"When being a good role model you are giving an example for other kids."

Topic Thunder:

"If you are doing drugs, drinking alcohol, you cannot do good in sports and you might not be able to be in the club."

Scouting Report (quotes from teachers):

"Leah is a great addition to our FBLA chapter this year and she has done a great job at getting involved. I look forward to watching her grow in her FBLA career and becoming an officer in the future!" – Mrs. Steinke

"Leah is a wonderful student who does her best to stay focused in class amid possible distractions. She is also willing to step up when needed to help out with class discussions and to offer assistance to her peers. Leah also often has a very positive demeanor that can be quite contagious." – Ms. Shay

Fan Deck (quotes from peers):

"Leah is always caring for her friends and others."

"Leah is trustworthy and sincere."

"Leah is nice to me."

"Leah is doing the right thing in class all the time."

"Leah is a role model and would never do anything bad."

"Leah is not into anything bad like substance and drugs, and she also plays sports."

"Leah is such an amazing person and she's always there to make everyone smile. She's helped me through so much and she's such a role model."

"Leah is very kind and outgoing."

"Leah is a person who loves to put a smile on your face, and has an unwavering passion for dance and volleyball."

"Leah knows how to make you smile she brightens up the room and help people when they need it."

"Leah is willing to help out any friend."

"Leah is in many clubs and is kind to everyone."

Hometown Hero:

"My hometown hero is Haley Koenig because she has made me a better person and she is a great role model to everyone!"