

The Above and Beyond 'Thunder Clap'
Recognition for the Week of February 19th:

Lilly Roshell

Hometown Pride:

"I'm proud of being in the OF community because everybody helps out those in need. Being part of the OF community makes sure others have friends, family, and support. It brings people closer together. Being in a great community like our community lets you set goals and standards for yourself. I love how everyone has everyone's back, and will show support to those who need an extra push."

Bleacher Report (activities):

Clubs: Above and Beyond, Student Council and FBLA

Outside of School: I helped with church activities last summer.

Thunder Role:

"Because when a child has a positive role model, they are likely to engage in constructive actions like the person they look up to."

Topic Thunder:

"Drugs and alcohol can be very addictive, and there are very hard to get off. Drugs can ruin your health and have a lot of side effects."

Scouting Report (quotes from teachers):

"Lillyona Roshell always tries her best, regardless of what the assignment is. Even when she's faced with setbacks, Lilly will continuously push through until she's satisfied with her work. She's also just a lovely human being!" – Mrs. Lane-Neddermeyer

Fan Deck (quotes from peers):

"Lilly will help people when they have an issue."

Hometown Hero:

"If I had to choose my hometown hero It would have to be Mrs. Lane she is one of the most understanding people I know. She is always there for you and tries her best to make your day special. She's always there with a shoulder to cry on and kleenex in her hand. She always wants to help out and make sure you always do the best of your ability. She always engages in our conversation and shows an interest in our lives. She is a great individual and cares about every one of her students, we all appreciate you."
