

The Above and Beyond 'Thunder Clap'
Recognition for the Week of November 13th:

Lizzie Jacobson

Hometown Pride:

"I am proud of my community because we are very close and always help one another out if something tragic has happened to a person or a business. Just recently after the loss of one of our students, our community came together to help out the family and the people who were mourning her loss by donating money and supporting one another."

Bleacher Report (activities):

Sports: Volleyball and Basketball

Clubs: Above and Beyond, Student Council, FBLA,NHS, and Culture Club

Outside of School: I'm involved in the OELC (Osseo Evangelical Lutheran Church) youth group and ASP (Appalachia Service Project).

Thunder Role:

"I think it's important for someone to be a good role model because everyone at a young age follows someone and does what that person always does. If a person does drugs and alcohol then many others would follow in their footsteps leading them to make bad decisions and ruin their life. If a person follows rule and does good things others would follow them and brighten their future and make good decisions."

Topic Thunder:

"It is important to stay away from drugs, alcohol, and tobacco because it could ruin someone's future and if they're an athlete it could ruin their athletic career. Drugs and alcohol are important to stay away from because all they can lead to is bad decisions and a hard life."

Scouting Report (quotes from teachers):

"Lizzie has a sense of humor and wit beyond her years. She is exceptionally bright and demonstrates confidence and an unapologetic dedication to being herself. She is awesome!" – Mrs. Velasquez

"Lizzie is a rockstar. She's an extremely deep thinker, gives her best effort (regardless of the subject), and isn't afraid to do the hard work. Lizzie is an absolutely superb human!" – Mrs. Lane-Neddermeyer

Fan Deck (quotes from peers):

"Lizzie Jacobson is an amazing student and best friend. She's always there for me, gets her work done, is responsible, and she makes everyone laugh."

"Lizzie is always wanting to help out and cares about others."

"There isn't a time when Lizzie can't make someone laugh. Her presence just brings out the best in people every day. Her silly personality is truly one of the best parts of my day. I can't imagine a better role model to look up to. "

"Lizzie always brings joy and a sense of humor to the classroom that brightens people's days. She is always looking out for people, and is one of the most caring people I know. She works hard at school and sports, and is a great person to be around!"

"Lizzie is my first choice because she's cute and so fun to be around she's a great role model and someone everyone loves to be around."

"Lizzie Jacobson always knows how to cheer people up and is really good at turning frowns upside down."

Hometown Hero:

"Wayne Beard is my hometown hero because he was a teacher at this school and was very helpful to his students and still helps out with the community after he retired. He helps fix homes for people around the community and has been a good role model for the community."
