

The Above and Beyond 'Thunder Clap'
Recognition for the Week of March 11th:

Luke Fischer

Hometown Pride:

"I am proud to be part of the Osseo-Fairchild community because there are so many great people who will do anything you ask them to do."

Bleacher Report:

Sports: Football, Wrestling and Baseball

Clubs: Above and Beyond

Thunder Role:

"In a small town like ours, young kids look up to students who are involved. It is important that we set a good example."

Topic Thunder:

"It is important for me to stay away from drugs and alcohol so that I can be the best that I can be and be a good role model for younger kids."

Scouting Report:

"Luke is a leader in the classroom. He does quality work and is a great kid to have in class." – Mr. Bergeron

"Luke is a very caring, responsible and hardworking student. He is an asset to the class." – Mrs. Pinero

"Luke has been a great addition to my class this school year. I appreciate that he is always engaged and active in class discussions. Luke is a great student." – Mr. Stoik

"Luke is a great person in and out of school. He is involved in so many things and takes pride in all. He is very well liked and is a great role model. I absolutely love his passion for doing well." – Mr. Boettcher

Fan Deck:

"Luke takes school seriously and is involved in many sports."

"Luke is very respectful."

"Luke always knows how to make you laugh and he is there for others."

"Luke is always there to make someone smile."

"Luke is a good athlete and a very hard worker."

Hometown Hero:

"My hometown hero is Frans Carlstrom because he is a great person and if you need to talk to someone you can talk to him. He is very involved in the community and he comes to a lot of sporting events. He is also a great role model. That is why he is my hometown hero."