

The Above and Beyond 'Thunder Clap'
Recognition for the Week of January 21st:

Maddy Mulcahy

Hometown Pride:

"I am proud to be a part of the Osseo-Fairchild community because of the continuous support it provides. No matter the need, our community always finds a way to rally together the people and resources to tackle an issue."

Bleacher Report:

Sports: Basketball

Clubs: Above and Beyond, TADD NHS and FBLA

Thunder Role:

"It's important to be a good role model because younger kids not only watch them on the court or field but off it as well. Student athletes are put in the spotlight, and because of this, they should set positive examples for those that look up to them."

Topic Thunder:

"It's important to stay away from drugs and alcohol because it impacts you negatively both academically and athletically. As students we have many things demanding our attention and rugs and alcohol distract and prevent us from meeting our highest potential."

Scouting Report:

"Determined is a word that immediately comes to mind when I think of Maddy. Whether it's coursework or athletics, I have always witnessed Maddy give everything and nothing but her best effort. Maddy is the type of student who is willing to learn, make mistakes, and continue striving to be her best. She's first-class in my book!" – Mrs. Beasley

"Maddy has a huge heart and is someone you can always count on. She definitely leads by example." – Mrs. Zawacki

"I do not currently have Maddy in class, but she is such a great role model every time I see her – both in and out of school. She is friendly, sincere, and always willing to help others out. She is a great person to represent OFHS." – Mr. Boettcher

Fan Deck:

"Maddy always pushes herself and others to be better."

"Maddy is a great basketball player and has overcome adversity. She is incredibly nice and deserving."

"Maddy is a motivated student and athlete."

"Maddy is a great role model in sports and taking college courses."

"When Maddy wants something done, she gets it done without a second thought. She has drive and motivation to do her best in all that she does."

Hometown Hero:

"A hometown hero of mine is Naomi Bodway. Naomi shows kindness to everyone she interacts with, and she always makes herself available to anyone in need. She is an amazing mentor and friend."
