

The Above and Beyond 'Thunder Clap'
Recognition for the Week of January 28th:

Madison Hageness

Hometown Pride:

"I am proud to be a part of the Osseo-Fairchild community because we are such a close community. Everyone supports each other and looks out for one another. I love how even if you don't have a child or relative playing a sport you still go to the games."

Bleacher Report:

Sports: Volleyball

Clubs: Above and Beyond, TADD, Student Council and Peer Tutoring

Thunder Role:

"Your community looks up to you. They come to support you on game days, so don't let them down by winding up on the end of the bench because you just had to go to that party. Young athletes look up to you too. If they see you disrespecting authority or showing up late to classes, then they think it is ok for them to do that too."

Topic Thunder:

"High School is such a short time in your life, but it is the base of how your life will go. If you mess around and only care about having a good time by getting high or getting drunk you're wasting your education. There is plenty of time in your life where you can do that, but as a student, you should be focusing on building a good future; not wrecking it."

Scouting Report:

"Madison Hageness is a very mature and principled person." – Mr. Velie

"Madison Hageness is an awesome student. She always strives for perfection and never settles for less than her best. She is a leader and a model student for all others." – Mr. Bergeron

"Madison is one of the most conscientious students that we have had here at Osseo-Fairchild. She is a role model for others to follow because of her dedication to do whatever is necessary to be successful." – Mr. Stoik

Fan Deck:

"Madison is a smart caring and responsible person."

"Madison gets good grades."

"Madison works hard for her grades and tries to stay as involved as possible."

"Madison always works hard and helps me and a lot of others in school."

"Madison is kind in the classroom and always shows respect."

"Madison works hard and is smart."

"Madison is determined to get things done and is amazing as a role model."

"Madison is smart, caring and mature."

Hometown Hero:

"My hometown hero is Vicki Boullion. Vicki comes to every sporting event that she can make. This isn't even just varsity games. She makes it to middle school games and out of school sports teams too. Vicki thinks of all of her former students as her kids and she'll do whatever she can to be able to watch them grow throughout the years."
