

Name _____

1. The “humungo” white food crushers that the class saw were really _____.
2. After chewing comes _____.
3. Going down the esophagus is like getting squeezed out of a tube of _____.
4. After the esophagus comes the _____.
5. There was more in the stomach than food and water. There was also _____.
6. The hole or valve in his stomach leads to the _____.
7. The villi (little hairs in the small intestine) were soaking up food like a _____.
8. The large intestine removes the _____ from the leftover food.
9. The leftover waste products after digestion will end up in the _____.
10. It takes more than _____ hours to digest food.