

The Above and Beyond 'Thunder Clap'
Recognition for the Week of May 13th:

Marissa Olson

Hometown Pride:

"I am proud to be a part of OFHS because we are all very close and we stand up for what is right! Osseo is a great place to live! We have a great community and when someone is in need everyone steps up to help!"

Bleacher Report:

Sports: Basketball

Clubs: Above and Beyond, FBLA, Student Council

Thunder Role:

"Many of the younger kids look up to us as good people because we are in school related activities. If you are in school activities and you do bad things and the younger kids see you, they will think its ok to do the same."

Topic Thunder:

"I feel like students should stay away from drugs and alcohol because they can seriously ruin your life. Doing drugs and drinking will ruin your reputation and could ruin your chances of getting a good job."

Scouting Report:

"Marissa – You know when she enters the classroom because she lights it up. It is great to have her in class." – Mrs. Pinero

"Marissa is a fun student to have in class with a great sense of humor and a lot of confidence in who she is as a person." – Mr. Stoik

Fan Deck:

"Marissa is mature and caring."

"Marissa is a good friend."

Hometown Hero:

"My grandpa Elmer is my hometown hero because he will do anything for anyone no matter what he is going through. He will always be there to help with things at home, family emergencies, or even just calling him to ask for some candy! My grandpa has a big heart and I'm so proud to call him my grandpa."
