

The Above and Beyond 'Thunder Clap'
Recognition for the Week of October 23rd:

Mason Schmidt

Hometown Pride:

"I'm proud to be a part of the OF community because in our town, people build other people up. I never feel like I'm out of place, and I want to make sure other people feel like they fit in as well. Being a part of this group of people means so much to me because no matter where you are in life, you can always find a place in Osseo-Fairchild."

Bleacher Report (activities):

Sports: Football, Basketball and Baseball
Clubs: Above and Beyond

Thunder Role:

"I think it is important to be a good role model because we need to set good examples for the people around us in our lives."

Topic Thunder:

"I think it is important to stay away from drugs and alcohol because it hurts your performance in sports and school. They also damage your body and have no benefits to using them."

Scouting Report (quotes from teachers):

"Mason is an easygoing, friendly student in class. He makes students feel welcome and works hard. I truly enjoy Mason S. in the classroom!— Mr. Phillips

Fan Deck (quotes from peers):

"Mason is a good overall role model."

"Mason Schmidt always does what he is told. He is involved with multiple sports and is a good friend. I feel like I can go to him if I need."

"Mason Schmidt is always friendly to others and will to help."

"Mason works hard and is friendly to others."

"Mason Schmidt is always on top of it when it comes to school work and has a good work ethic."

"He helps anyone when they need it and is always kind."

Hometown Hero:

"I chose Peter Kleinschmidt as my home town hero because he is always greeting people throughout the building. He creates a fun learning environment, and helps with sports activities. He is also a good person to talk to, no matter the circumstances. That is way I chose Peter Kleinschmidt as my hometown hero."
