Recognition for the Week of May 7th:

Megan Steinke

Hometown Pride: "I am proud to be part of the Osseo-Fairchild community because I take pride in my school, my teams, and the clubs I belong to. I see the good work that other people do and I wouldn't change my community for any other one!"

Bleacher Report:

Sports: Volleyball and Basketball

Clubs: Above and Beyond, FBLA, NHS, Band and Choir

Thunder Role:

"It is important to be a good role model because you aren't just representing yourself. You are representing that club, the school that club belongs to and what that club stands for."

Topic Thunder:

"It is important to stay away from drugs and alcohol because it doesn't have a positive impact on your life in high school. And, if it doesn't help you, what's the point?"

Scouting Report:

"Megan has been a fun student to teach. She works hard both in and outside of the class and her hard work pays off. She is thoughtful and opinionated-which has been great in class." – Mrs. Dickenson

Fan Deck:

"Megan is very involved with school and other activities."

"Megan gets stuff done that others may not."

"Megan is a good role model."

Hometown Hero:

"One of my hometown heroes includes my late grandmother. She taught me so much about life; how to act, what to do when in certain situations, and how to be the best person that I can be. I honestly believe that, without her influence, I wouldn't be the person I am today. I would also like to recognize Naomi Bodway as a hometown hero."
