

The Above and Beyond 'Thunder Clap'
Recognition for the Week of October 30th:

Michelle Dewitz

Hometown Pride: "I enjoy being part of the Osseo-Fairchild community because it is super supportive. I enjoy going to sporting events and seeing the community there."

Bleacher Report:

Sports: Basketball
Science

Clubs: Above and Beyond, Above and Beyond, 4-H, NHS,
Olympiad, Spanish Club, FBLA, Band

Thunder Role:

"It is important to be a good role model because younger students look up to you. They need examples of what to do and how to act."

Topic Thunder:

"Drugs and alcohol affect your performance negatively. It's not a cool thing to do."

Scouting Report:

"Michelle leads by example in a quiet manner. She has established a great work ethic through her participation in sports, clubs and organizations, and her schoolwork. Michelle is always organized and willing to lend an extra hand when it is needed – and always with a smile and a laugh." – Mrs. Beasley

"Michelle is a very conscientious student and I know I can rely on her to turn in quality work! This is Michelle's 4th year in FBLA and I look forward to seeing where this year leads for her at competition." – Mrs. Steinke

"Michelle is a bright, positive and intelligent person. She is a conscientious student and kind to those around her." – Ms. Dickensen

Fan Deck:

"Michelle is really nice."

"Michelle is smart and works hard."

"Michelle is helpful, kind, and respectful."

"Michelle is beyond polite and always has something nice to say."

"Michelle always is happy and willing to help others."

"Michelle tries hard at school and is very involved."

"Michelle is always positive and a good role model."

"Michelle is involved and always willing to help."

Hometown Hero:

"My hometown hero is Linda Rauter. Linda is selfless. She loves children and does an abundance for them and the community."
