

The Above and Beyond 'Thunder Clap'
Recognition for the Week of April 15th:

Noah Krueger

Hometown Pride:

"I'm proud to be part of the OF community because the people of our community are always supporting each other and the school. They are also very supportive of the community's clubs, organizations, and sports."

Bleacher Report (activities):

Sports: Football, Wrestling and Baseball

Clubs: Above and Beyond, Student Council, TADD

Outside of School: Boy Scouts

Thunder Role:

"I think it's important to be a good role model because others are more likely to do good especially if they look up to someone who is a good role model."

Topic Thunder:

"I think it's important to stay away from drugs and alcohol in general because they affect your decisions making skills and can make you make bad/harmful decisions."

Scouting Report (quotes from teachers):

"I have recently been able to spend more time with Noah because of his contributions to the TADD group. Noah has proven to be reliable and a team player. He presented well to the group of 5th graders and worked well with his peers to get the message across. It is awesome to see Noah contribute to the school in athletics, the classroom and clubs the school offers." -Mrs. Simpson

Fan Deck (quotes from peers):

"Noah Krueger is smart and helps me out."

"Noah helps me in class and is funny."

"Noah Krueger gets good grades."

"Noah Krueger is kind and helpful."

"Noah is a good example for Above and Beyond because he plays multiple sports and is kind, and doesn't do drugs or alcohol."

Hometown Hero:

"My hometown hero is Jack Pople because he's always putting together lift programs for the sports teams. He's also a kind person and is always trying to support and push people get better."
