

The Above and Beyond 'Thunder Clap'
Recognition for the Week of April 24th:

Paige Pronschinske

Hometown Pride:

"I am proud to be a part of the OF community because of all of the kind hearted people in the community. There are so many kind and generous people with local businesses and groups in the community. The people of the community are what makes the OF community such a great place."

Bleacher Report (activities):

Clubs: Above and Beyond, Student Council, National Honor Society,
Yearbook

Sports: Track and Field

Outside of School: DARE presentation at elementary school, National Honor Society Volunteering

Thunder Role:

"I think it is important to be a good role model and a positive influence for other students because you never know who is watching and positive people can influence others actions and motivate them to strive to be the best they can."

Topic Thunder:

"I think it is important to stay away from drug and alcohol use as an athlete and club member because being a part of extracurriculars younger students are constantly looking up to you so it is important to always set a good example for others."

Scouting Report (quotes from teachers):

"Paige has always been so kind and friendly - she helps to make our school a better place to be." – Mr. Stoik

Fan Deck (quotes from peers):

"Paige is a good role model in school and a great friend."

"Paige is always welcoming and putting a smiling on people faces."

"Paige is always willing to volunteer and she does it happily too."

"She tries her best at everything she does and is always there to help anyone who needs it. She is involved and is one of the kindest people I know."

Hometown Hero:

"My hometown hero is Kendra Hasz. Kendra is one of the most kind hearted people I have ever met and has the biggest heart for everyone. Kendra is also a very hard worker, she is currently going to school at UWEC to be a teacher! She is always there whenever anyone needs anything and is overall just a great friend to everyone."
