

The Above and Beyond 'Thunder Clap'
Recognition for the Week of March 7th:

Rachel Moe

Hometown Pride:

"I am proud to be a part of this community because everyone is so supportive and a joy to be around."

Bleacher Report (activities):

Sports: Volleyball

Clubs: Above and Beyond, FBLA and Student Council

Thunder Role:

"I think it's important to be a good role model because it helps future students succeed and be the best they can be!"

Topic Thunder:

"I believe it's important to stay away from drugs and alcohol because it is very important to take care of your body and stay away from harmful substances."

Scouting Report (quotes from teachers):

"It has been rewarding to see the growth and maturity of the Senior class in American Civics this school year and Rachel is a great example of that. She has been fun to have in class!" – Mr. Stoik

Fan Deck (quotes from peers):

"Rachel is bubbly and has a lot of energy. She can talk to anyone and always has a story to tell."

Hometown Hero:

"My mother, Tracy Moe, is my hometown hero because I look up to her in many different ways and she supports and defends every decision I have ever made."
