

The Above and Beyond 'Thunder Clap'
Recognition for the Week of April 12th:

Rae Prudlick

Hometown Pride:

"I'm proud to be part of the OF community because this is where I've grown up half of my life, and where I'm going to graduate. This community is very nice and friendly, and everyone is willing to pitch in when someone needs help."

Bleacher Report (activities):

Sports: Volleyball, Basketball and Softball
Clubs: Above and Beyond, Student Council
Outside of School: Girl Scouts

Thunder Role:

"Being a good role model is more than just being a good example for younger and older students. It also reflects on what choices you've made in the past, and what choices you could make in the future."

Topic Thunder:

"Addiction is not a pretty thing and I don't want to go down the wrong road that leads to bad future choices. Staying away from drugs, alcohol, and tobacco can help me stay fit and healthy for anything."

Scouting Report (quotes from teachers):

"Wow what a VERY talented young lady!! Rae just knocked our socks off in Ceramics class this year. She is so intelligent and creative. I really enjoyed having her as a student - because she is so friendly, positive, and a real- go-getter. I appreciate her strong work ethic and a willingness to learn new things. Absolutely remarkable! I wish Rae nothing but the best in her future ahead!" – Mrs. Covelli

"Rae never missed a day without a friendly greeting upon entering the classroom! She was fun to have in class because of both her conscientious approach to academics and also her friendly personality." – Mr. Stoik

Fan Deck (quotes from peers):

"Rae is a fantastic listener and always willing to help."

"Rae Prudlick is very nice."

"Rae is a social butterfly, a hard worker and nice to everyone."

Hometown Hero:

"My hometown hero is my mother, Carie Prudlick, because she's been there for me through almost everything. She always pitches in when I need help with sports, school, homework, and just when I need someone to talk to. My mother is always asking for my opinion, she's always pushing me to try my best and to never give up."
