Recognition for the Week of February 15th:

Rose Bohlinger

Hometown Pride:

"I am proud to be part of the OF community because of how supportive everyone is. I love going to games and seeing the support from community members. I also love that no matter where you go in town, you'll see someone you know."

Bleacher Report (activities):

Clubs: Above and Beyond, TADD, Student Council, NHS
Outside of School: Youth Grade

Thunder Role:

"It is very important to be a good role model because you never know who is watching you. You never know who is looking up to you, and who's life you are making a difference in."

Topic Thunder:

"It is very important to stay away from drugs and alcohol because they affect you in negative ways. Drugs and alcohol don't let you perform your best performance. You only hurt yourself by using them."

Scouting Report (quotes from teachers):

"Rose is one the kindest young lady that I have had the privilege to get to know. She has the heart of gold and a servant's attitude. She does kind deeds to her friends, family and others around her. She uses her skills to bring joy to others. She even brought my family our favorite treats from Kwik Trip when we were quarantined in our house. Even taking the time to realize what my favorite treats were. I will miss her and look forward to watching her grow at UWEC." – Mr. Fischer

"Even though I don't have the privilege of having Rose in person this year she is doing a great job at her Youth Apprenticeship Program placement and they speak very highly of her work performance. Great Job Rose!" – Mrs. Steinke

"Rose is a fun-loving and hardworking student who brings joy to class each day. She cares about her classmates and teachers, shows empathy when it is needed, and provides smiles and laughs when we need them most." – Mrs. Beasley

Fan Deck (quotes from peers):

"Rose is always positive and is kind to everyone."

"I feel like Rose has been able to change and adjust through high school yet in a way that keeps her true self in tact."

Hometown Hero:

"My hometown hero is Jamie Beltz. Jamie always makes work fun and exciting. No matter how busy or crazy it is, she makes it a positive workplace. Jamie always has my back and is looking out for me. She leads a great example of what it means to be a good coworker and community member. Jamie has the best sense of humor, and always knows how to make someone laugh."
