

The Above and Beyond 'Thunder Clap'
Recognition for the Week of January 10th:

Rylee Bratina

Hometown Pride:

"This community always comes together and helps each other out when needed, everyone always makes you feel welcomed and that you're cared for."

Bleacher Report (activities):

Sports: Cross Country and Track

Clubs: Above and Beyond, NHS

Outside of School: Sunday School

Thunder Role:

"I think it's good to be role model because you can show the younger students how they are supposed to act and what not to do."

Topic Thunder:

"I think it's very important to stay away from any substances that could impair your thinking for school or athletics. When you do any drugs or have any alcohol, you can't think straight and might hurt yourself or others."

Scouting Report (quotes from teachers):

"Rylee is very personable and is doing an outstanding job at her Work Experience placement at Alliance Bank. She is representing OFHS positively and providing exceptional service to the Alliance customers. Great Job, Rylee!" – Mrs. Steinke

"Rylee possesses a smile that can light up a room, and a personality to match it. She focuses on completing her work isn't afraid to ask questions to improve her work -- she's a pleasure to have in class." – Mrs. Beasley

Fan Deck (quotes from peers):

"Rylee is overall, just a really good person."

"Rylee Bratina gets good grades and has a great ambition to get good grades."

"Rylee accepts others for who they genuinely are."

Hometown Hero:

"My hometown hero is Marlene Hagen. Marlene always makes me smile and never lets me feel down. Marlene is always kind to anyone she meets and is truly an amazing person."
