Recognition for the Week of December 6th:

Sophia Brown

Hometown Pride:

"I am proud to be part of the OF community because this community is very supportive. The OF community supports everyone, academically and athletically. The community comes together to help those in need, and that is why I am proud to be part of the OF community."

Bleacher Report (activities):

Sports: Track and Field

Clubs: Above and Beyond, NHS

Thunder Role:

"Because if you are a good model that reflects on you as a person, as well as the community. You also have to be a good role model for the younger kids because they are always looking up to you."

Topic Thunder:

"Staying away from drugs and alcohol is important because it can harm your body. Being an athlete, it is important to stay away from things to keep yourself in the best shape it can be in."

Scouting Report (quotes from teachers):

"When a student asks for an independent study (IS), there is a concern about the student's work ethic and self-motivation. Sophia Brown went above and beyond in her IS. She put forth the effort to work on her own while patiently waiting for my help as I had another class at the same time. Sophia is a dream to work with!" – Mrs. Ottestad

"Sophia has been a great student throughout but I have enjoyed the opportunity to get to know her better through class discussions and her work in American Civics." – Mr. Stoik

"Although quiet and reserved, Sophia shines in each of the classes she has taken with me. She's a deep thinker who shows on paper what she may not necessarily say in class discussions. Sophia is not afraid to step out of her comfort zone and try new things, which is exactly what good leaders do." – Mrs. Beasley

Fan Deck (quotes from peers):

"Sophia is involved in clubs and is a good role model."

"Sophia Brown is super nice to everyone and doesn't hesitate to help others if they need it."

"I think Sophia is a good role model because she is a good student and is also very kind to other students."

"Sophia Brown can always make me laugh and feel better. She is one of the best people I know."

"Sophia is kind to everyone no matter what!"

Hometown Hero:

"My hometown hero is my parents because they have supported me through everything. They have been there for me all my life and I am very thankful for that. My parents have encouraged me to succeed, and have encouraged me to continue forward through the lows of life. My parents are my hometown hero because they have provided for me and inspired me to succeed, I am the person that I am because of the support they have given me."
