

The Above and Beyond 'Thunder Clap'
Recognition for the Week of April 3rd:

Taylor Hammer

Hometown Pride:

"I am proud to be a part of the OF community because we are such a close town and are always working together to grow our community. Osseo is a great town filled with amazing people."

Bleacher Report (activities):

Sports: Basketball and Track

Clubs: Above and Beyond, TADD, FBLA

Outside of School: I am in a youth group at Elk Creek Lutheran Church

Thunder Role:

"I think it's important to be a great role model because it shows our younger generation that it's great to be nice, get your work done, and be a good person. We want to set a great example so it's just their lifestyle to be a good person."

Topic Thunder:

"It's always important to stay away from drugs, alcohol and tobacco because it is terrible for your body, and as an athlete this plays back into being a good role model. Nobody wants to be penalized from sports, especially from stupid things."

Scouting Report (quotes from teachers):

"Taylor is a great role model for what can be accomplished through hard work." – Mr. Stoik

"Taylor is a very conscientious student who does her classwork to perfection. She works equally as hard in sports, and Taylor's fun to watch on the court." – Mrs. Beasley

Fan Deck (quotes from peers):

"Taylor Hammer is very friendly and can light up any room."

"She is a very smart individual."

Taylor is one of the most knowledgeable and kindest people in our class whenever anyone needs anything. Is also very involved in clubs and sports!"
"Taylor is a positive model in sports and keeps a positive outlook for sports."

Hometown Hero:

"Kendall Gunderson has been playing a huge roll with our community. She is always volunteering with our youth programs and none of the work goes unnoticed. But most importantly she is a kind person who is always willing to help out."
