Recognition for the Week of June 1st:

Trevor Hammer

Hometown Pride: “We take for granted how nice our small community is and most people can’t say they have a nice little small community like us. Sure it’d be nice to have all the stuff a huge city had, but really it is a totally different life.”

Sports: Basketball and Baseball
Clubs: Above and Beyond

Thunder Role:

“It is important for student athletes to be good role models because whether you know it or not, there are a lot of younger kids who look up to you.”

Topic Thunder:

“There are too many minors that do drugs and alcohol and don’t know what they are doing to themselves!”

Scouting Report:

“Trevor works hard to say on top of his schoolwork and balance the demands of the sports in which he participates.” – Mr. Stoik

Fan Deck:

“Trevor works outside of the season on the sports he wants to excel in.”

Hometown Hero:

“Ken Kaufman is my hometown hero. He is always around for me even with his busy schedule. He does plenty for all off his 5 grandchildren and He doesn’t get the recognition that he deserves.”
