

The Above and Beyond 'Thunder Clap'
Recognition for the Week of April 29th:

Trevor Hammer

Hometown Pride:

"It is amazing to be in a small community where you can find help whenever you need it."

Bleacher Report:

Sports: Basketball and Golf

Clubs: Above and Beyond

Thunder Role:

"The more leaders and positive people you have in a group, the better the group will be."

Topic Thunder:

"Nobody needs any of that stuff ever, especially not before you are an adult."

Scouting Report:

"Trevor does a great job going above and beyond in class. I know I will always receive quality work and he adds to classroom discussions. Thanks for being a role model Trevor!" – Mrs. Steinke

"I have enjoyed the conversations and debates that I have had with Trevor over the years. He always provides a well-thought out take on the various topics we have discussed." – Mr. Stoik

Fan Deck:

"Trevor is a good athlete and a good student."

"Trevor works really hard."

Hometown Hero:

"Ken Kaufman is my hometown hero. He doesn't get the credit he deserves for being such an important person in my life. This is my grandpa, he has 5 grandchildren and finds time to help out all of us. I don't know where I would be without him."
