

The Above and Beyond 'Thunder Clap'
Recognition for the Week of February 19th:

Tryggve Korger

Hometown Pride:

"I am proud to be a part of the Osseo-Fairchild community because of our togetherness. Knowing that anytime you need, there are countless members of our community willing to help you with whatever you might need. As my life progresses and I have kids, I really hope that they have the same privilege as I do of growing up in such a great community."

Bleacher Report (activities):

Sports: Football, Basketball and Baseball

Clubs: Above and Beyond, Student Council, FBLA, and NHS

Outside of School: OELC Youth Group, and Sons of the American Legion

Thunder Role:

"I believe that it is important to be a good role model because you really never know who is watching. As a young kid, I was around high schoolers in dugouts and on buses, I was always thinking "gosh, how can I be like them". Because of this, I always try to be myself and set a good example."

Topic Thunder:

"It is important to stay away from drugs because I know people that have ruined their entire life based off of one decision. I also know that all it takes is one time and one bad decision."

Scouting Report (quotes from teachers):

"Tryggve is a leader in our academics, athletics, and clubs across the school and community. He never commits to something he can't follow through on, which is something I really respect. Follow through & integrity are crucial to success, and Tryggve demonstrates those well for his peers. His dedication, compassion, and drive will take him far!" – Ms. Hayden

"Tryggve Korger is always a bright spot in my day! He brings the class spirit up, and his thoughtful academic questions are indicative of his deep thinking. Way to go, Tryggve!" – Mrs. Lane-Neddermeyer

Fan Deck (quotes from peers):

"Tryggve is involved in various school activities and clubs and he is a good role model for people."

"Tryggve is a good role model of what a hard working student athlete who stays away from any substances is."

"Tryggve is very intelligent and dedicated with everything he does. He shows effort in class and is always willing to help those who are struggling in class. He works hard and is a leader!"

Hometown Hero:

"My hometown hero is Scottie Schoettle. I could sit here and give thousands of examples of why I would recommend anybody to model themselves after Scottie. Anytime I see Scottie he is upbeat and always smiling, it is genuinely impossible to interact with him and not smile. He is also always volunteering his time for something or someone. In the spring and summertime, he generously volunteers countless hours at merchant park with the sound system. He really makes the baseball games feel more engaged and just a great environment. He also fixed up the scoreboard out there to pull it all together! Another great attribute of Scottie's is that he can be very down to earth, right after being silly. If I would ever be in a bad situation and needed help, I would feel 100 percent confident that Scottie would help me or anyone out. For all of these reasons, Scottie Schoettle is my hometown hero!"
