

The Above and Beyond 'Thunder Clap'
Recognition for the Week of December 7th:

Wyatt Ramseier

Hometown Pride:

"I am proud to be in this small community because everyone helps each other out when in need. Everyone knows everyone so it makes it easier to connect with people."

Bleacher Report (activities):

Sports: Football, Basketball and Baseball

Clubs: Above and Beyond

Thunder Role:

"I think that it is important to be a good role model because the younger generation looks up to us to lead them."

Topic Thunder:

"Drugs and alcohol can destroy your life."

Scouting Report (quotes from teachers):

"There is never a dull moment when he is in your class, but he will always keep the discussions moving forward when asked a question and puts in effort to do well in class." – Mrs. Steinke

"Wyatt (Willy) is such a bright spot in a dark day. He brings humor and his weird way of singing into any situation. He is a great person to have in class and on the playing field. His desire to win and also succeed are contagious. Love to have him around." – Mr. Boettcher

"Wyatt has a very laid back and easy going approach to life. He never seems to get rattled or upset and that makes him a very easy person to get along with!" – Mr. Stoik

"Wyatt is one of the funniest students I have had. It has been fun watching him grow from a four year old rugrat to a young man."

Fan Deck (quotes from peers):

"Wyatt is friends with everyone."

"Wyatt is very respectful and kind to everyone."

"Wyatt is nice to everyone and makes people laugh."

"Wyatt is a kind, hard-working individual that is a great role model for younger students."

Hometown Hero:

"My hometown hero is my brother Parker Ramseier. He has taught me everything I know, and he has always be there for me. He is my role model that I look up too. Some people call us the brothers of destruction. He is one of the hardest working people that I know. He supports me with whatever I do. He makes me proud to call him my big brother. I don't know what I would do without him."
