

The Above and Beyond 'Thunder Clap'
Recognition for the Week of January 14th:

Zoey Lafky

Hometown Pride:

"I am proud to be part of our community because everyone helps everyone and the people are nice and willing to do anything for anyone."

Bleacher Report:

Sports: Volleyball and Softball

Clubs: Above and Beyond

Thunder Role:

"I feel it is important for club members to be good role models because a lot of the middle school students look up to the high school students and think it's cool what we do."

Topic Thunder:

"Student athletes should stay away from drugs and alcohol because they shouldn't want that reputation. It will follow you everywhere."

Scouting Report:

"I have been very impressed with Zoey's willingness to get involved this year. I was so excited when Zoey expressed interest in being a manager for the basketball team this year. When plans changed, Zoey was very responsible and a great communicator. I am happy that Zoey is taking strides to become a better volleyball player outside of the season." – Mrs. Simpson

Fan Deck:

"Zoey is generous and kind. She would do anything for someone else."

"Zoey is kind and polite. She does what she thinks is right all of the time."

"Zoey always tell the truth and tries her best at everything."

"Zoey always plans thing out and is there for you when things don't go to plan."

Hometown Hero:

"My hometown hero is Sienna Chumas because she is so outgoing, nice and hilarious. She will help anyone who needs it and will listen to anyone that needs to talk about something."
